Business & Industry Fact Sheet

What is FAME?

Partnerships that benefit you

FAME is a membership organization that is dedicated exclusively to serving the advanced manufacturing sector. Our public/private members and regional stakeholders include:

- Advanced Manufacturing Companies
- Regional Educators
- Economic Development Leaders
- Workforce Planners and Leaders
- Job Seekers
- Students
- Regional stakeholders who support our mission in building a strong, educated and adaptable workforce

How are we different?

Workforce development is our game

FAME was created from a grassroots effort by local advanced manufacturers who realized that their growth was being adversely impacted by an inadequate supply of skilled workers. FAME has identified the root causes of these skill challenges, and our membership provides you with a unique opportunity to be engaged with us in implementing effective solutions.

Unlike other manufacturing organizations and associations, FAME is run by local advanced manufacturers and our unique focus is workforce development. Our innovative workforce initiatives build the workforce talent that our industry needs to thrive in a globally competitive marketplace.

What's in it for you?

What are our key initiatives?

Building and keeping talent

FAME focuses on finding solutions to the issues that matter most in advanced manufacturing.

1) Hiring & Training Issues:

We improve collaboration with workforce educators and help advanced manufacturing companies recruit, hire and train skilled workers.

2) Pipeline Issues:

We build a pipeline of skilled qualified advanced manufacturing candidates by engaging K-12 youth in pursuing manufacturing careers.

3) Manufacturing Perception Issues:

We raise awareness about the importance and attractiveness of, and opportunities in, advanced manufacturing.
