

LYNDA M. VANCOSKE, ESQ.

Lynda M. VanCoske is an attorney staffing the Monroe 2-Orleans BOCES Labor Relations Service. The Labor Relations Service serves 20 school districts with regard to contract negotiations, labor and personnel issues. She is in-house counsel for BOCES as well on non-labor issues. She also oversees the fingerprint and School Investigator services.

Lynda is originally from Rochester, New York where she graduated from St. John Fisher College. She has served as an intern at the Clerk's office at the United States Supreme Court. While at Hofstra School of Law, she functioned as a research assistant for the Director of the Law Library. Lynda has obtained her permanent School Administrator Supervisory and School District Administrator certifications. She has also obtained two collective bargaining certificates from Cornell University.

Lynda is the chair of the Monroe County Bar Association School Attorney Committee and a member of The North American Association of Educational Negotiators (NAEN), the New York State Bar Association, and New York State Association of Management Advocates for School Labor Affairs. Lynda is also an adjunct professor for Conesus College.